Free Foreclosure Prevention Workshop

-Hosted by Neighborhood House Association Housing Counseling Program-

WHAT: In response to overwhelming demand for foreclosure prevention help, Neighborhood House Association is partnering with The Law Office of Roy L. Landers and Associates to host a free foreclosure prevention workshop for the residents of San Diego County.

The workshop will provide education and counseling on topics including, but not limited to, government assistance programs, the California foreclosure process, types of mortgage loans, as well as sub-prime and predatory lending.

WHERE: Neighborhood House Association's Social Services Location
841 South 41st St.
San Diego, CA 92113

WHEN: Saturday, April 11, 2009
9 a.m. to 12 p.m.

WHY: Neighborhood House Association (NHA) is San Diego's largest multi-purpose human service agency and is dedicated to helping individuals and families improve their quality of life by providing vital social services to the community. NHA is also a U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) approved counseling agency dedicated to providing families with the knowledge, awareness and resources necessary to reduce the number of homes lost through foreclosure.
