

Neighborhood House Association & Urban League of San Diego County

Invite You To Join Author & Activist

Terry Angel Mason

for an intimate conversation regarding HIV/AIDS Prevention

Mr. Mason is an international LGBT author, columnist, speaker and community activist. A former client of NHA's HIV/AIDS Case Management program, Mason is now dedicated to saving lives around the world. He was chosen as the Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Day National Spokesperson for 2012. Mason is a Pulitzer nominated author of the inspiring book, Love Won't Let Me Be Silent. His most recent work, They Say That I Am Broken, is a powerful book aimed at spreading truth about the dangers and consequences of homophobia, hate, and inequality. NHA invites you to join the highly acclaimed author for an insightful and motivating conversation.

Date: Friday, May 18, 2012

Time: 1:30 - 2:30 p.m., Book Signing To Follow Immediately

Location: NHA Social Services Center at 841 South, 41st Street, San Diego, CA 92113

*Refreshments will be provided by MOMS Pharmacy

All attendees must RSVP to attend this event.

To register please email your name, organization and phone number to communityaffairs@neighborhoodhouse.org or call 858-244-8210.

Neighborhood House
Association

"A neighbor you can count on...since 1914"

